I pledge my honour that :

- I shall use access facilities I have been granted only in the strict limits of the agreements between me and MétéoFrance, and, in particular, I shall not try to access systems or files which would not be necessary to my work as agreed with Météo-France, nor shall I willingly disrupt the information system of Météo-France,
- I shall respect instructions for the systems used,
- I shall not make nor keep copies of files I shall have access to, except by a particular written authorization from the chief of the receiving service,
- I shall not reveal the information I shall be given to access computer systems of Météo-France.

Failure to conform to these arrangements could lead Météo-France to interrupt my access and lodge a complaint against me and my original establishment.
